VIII. Faculty Advisors

Randy Taylor

- Scholarship Applications have been emailed out. You will need to write a personal statement, impact statement (1 paragraph detailing the things that impact your life), and provide a copy of your transcripts, which you can get from a drop-in with a counselor. You must also provide a list of all of your service. You may count hours for time that you spent in other clubs while also a member of AGS. You can also count points that you will make in days prior to April 8th (such as pizza nights and bake sales) but nothing after. The three scholarship categories are continuing students, new students, and new and continuing students. This is due by 3:00pm on April 8th. You may slide it under Mr. Taylor's office door.
- Club day is April 23rd, which is the same day as student body elections.

- You can give yourself one point of community service for voting in the elections.
- Please sign up for the Teacher Appreciation dinner if you have someone in mind.
